Helping others is not easy.

A. "Helping" in Section 4

Can I help you?

-doing something good for people in need

[direct / dependent]

B. McJilton's idea of helping

Staying around while you fix your bike

-matching up surplus food with those who can use it

[indirect / independent]

Helping others is not easy.

-people in need
-people below the relative poverty line

C. Your idea(s) or example(s) of helping giving up your seat

donating money

teaching how to solve a problem

telling sb the way

listening actively

running an NPO together

A. "helping" in Section 4

"Can I help you?"
"Doing something good for people in need"

direct, dependent

B. McJilton's idea of helping

"Staying around while you fix your bike"
"matching up surplus food with those who can use it "

indirect, independent

Helping others

-people in need
-people below the poverty line
Who else???

C. Your idea(s) or example(s) of helping

giving up your seat

donating money

collaborating the problem

telling sb the way

listening actively

running an NPO together

D. "not easy" means… ?

Cannot do anything? What you do is important? How you help is important? Or…?